DRY GOODS.

Having received to-day the last and remaining stock of the Combination, I most respectfully announce to the people of Alexandria and vicinity that I will remove the entire stock on or about the first day of February. Having determined to sell all goods at a great sacrifice rather than remove them, and having concluded rather to dispose of them at private sale than at auction, I will only say one word, and that is, that ALL OUR GOODS ARE MARKED AT EX-ACTLY ONE HALF ORIGINAL VALUE, and only ask an examination of the prices and goods, which are arranged from this day in lots and prices to make every one astonished-a chance you will never, never get again. Call and convince yourself, as this is the only proper way I can satisfy you all. Thanking my friends and customers for their liberal share of patronage, I am most thankfully yours,

A. E. P. ALBERT,
Professor in Nicholas Public School, Parish of Terrebonne, La.

MALARIOUS FEVERS You are at liberty to use my name in praise of your Regulator as prepared by you, and recommend it to every one as the best preventive for Fever and Ague in the world. I plant in southwestern Georgia, near Albany, Georgia, and must say that it has done more good on my plantation among my negroes than any medi cine I ever used. It supersedes quinine if taken Yours, &c., Hon. B. H. HILL, Ga.

CHILDREN!-Your Regulator is superior to any other remedy for Malarial Diseases among children, and it has a large salo in this section of Georgia. -[W. M. Russell, Albany, Ga.

CONSTIPATION. TESTIMONY OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF GEORGIA.—I have used Simmons' Liver Regulator for constipation of my bowels, caused by a temporary derangement of the liver, for the last three or four years, and always, when used according to the directions, with decided benefit. I think it is a good medicine for the derangement of the liver—at least such has been my personal experience in the use of it.

HIRAM WARNER,
Chief Justice of Georgia. SICK HEADACHE.

EDITORIAL-We have tested its virtues, personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world eversaw. We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons' Liver Regulator, but none of them gave us more than temporary relief; but the Regulator not only relieved but cured us.—[Editor Tele-graph and Messenger, Ma-con, Ga.

COLIC AND GRUBBS IN HORSES. Having had during the last twenty years of my life to attend to Racing Stock, and having had so much trouble with them with Colic, Grubbs, &c., gave me a great deal of trouble. Having heard of your Regulator as a cure for the above diseases, I concluded to try it. After trying one PACKAGE IN MASH I found it to cure interest in the string to prove in every instance. It is only to be tried to prove what I have said in its praise. I can send you certificates from Augusta, Clinton and Macon, as to the cure of horse.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1877.

[For the Alexandria Gazette.] Selections from an Old Historical Record.

While looking over an old book, printed in Philadelphia in 1814, I found the following inter-

Of the Mayor of Alexandria to General Washington on his leaving that neighborhood to take on him the office of Presidency of the United States-1789:

"Again your country commands your care. Obedient to its wishes, unmindful of your ease, we see you again relinquishing the bliss of retirement, and this, too, at a period of life when nature itself seems to authorize a preference of "Not to extel your glory as a soldier; not to pour forth our gratitude for past services; not to acknowledge the justice of the uncompled nonor which has been conferred upon you by the spontaneous and unanimous suffrage of three millions of freeman in your election to the supreme magistracy, nor to ad hire the patriotism which directs your conduct, do your neighbors and friends now address you. Themes less splendid but more endearing impress our minds. The first and best of citizens must leave us; our aged must lose their ornament; our youth their model; our agriculture its improver; our com-merce its friend; our infant academy its protector; our poor their benefactor, and the interior navigation of the Potomac (an event replete with the most extensive utility, already, by your unremitted exertions, brought into partial use,) its institutor and promoter.

"Farewell. Go, and make a grateful people happy-a people who will be doubly grateful when they contemplate this recent sacrifice for their interest.

"To that Being who maketh and unmaketh at His will, we commend you; and after the accomplishment of the arducus business to which you are called, may He restore to us again the best of men, and the most beloved citizen."

GEN. WASHINGTON'S REPLY. "Gentlemen-Although I ought not to conceal yet I cannot describe the painful emotions which I folt in being called upon to determine whether I would accept or refuse the Presidency of the United States. The unanimity in the choice; the opinion of my friends communicated from different parts of Europe, as well as from America; the apparent wish of those who were not entirely satisfied with the constitution in its pre-sent form, and an ardent desire on my own part to be instrumental in connecting the good will of my countrymen towards each other, have induced an acceptance. Those who know me best (and you, my fellow citizens, are, from your situation, in that number,) know better than any others my love of retirement is so great that no earthy consideration short of a servicion of duty would have prevailed upon conviction of duty would have prevailed upon me to depart from my resolution 'never more to take any share in transactions of a public nature:' for at my age, and in my circumstances, ous and uncertain ocean of public life?

"I do not feel myself under the necessity of making public declarations in order to convince you, gentlemen, of my attachment to yourselves and regard for your interests. The whole tenor of my life has been open to your inspection, and my past actions, rather than my present declarations, must be the pledge of my future conduct. "In the mean time, I thank you most sincerely for the expressions of kindness cuntained in what prospects or advantages could I propose to myself from embarking again on the tempestu-your valedictory address. It is true, just after having bade adieu to my domestic connexions, this tender proof of your friendship is but too well calculated still further to awaken my sensibility and increase my regret at parting from the enjoyments of private life.

"All that now remains for me is to commit myself and you to the protection of that benefi-cent Being, who, on a former occasion, hath happily brought us together after a long and distressing separation. Perhaps the same gra-cious Providence will again indulge me. Unutterable sensations must then be left to more expressive silence, while from an acning heart I bid all my affectionate friends and kind neigh-SPECIAL NOTICES.
